

Learning Exercise: Writing Functions

1. Write a function, add, that takes two numbers as parameters and returns their sum.
2. Write a function, multiply, that takes two numbers as parameters and returns their product.
3. Now, test! Write python code that gets two numbers as input from the user and prints out their sum and product by calling the two functions above. Bonus points for putting this part in a main function.